

Literacy Bingo Card

There are many different types of literacy, and they are inter-related. Enjoy working on these as a family! Each time you complete an activity during Capitol Hill's Literacy Week, mark an X in the corresponding box. Complete a minimum of one BINGO line to be eligible to win a prize. All submissions are due to your child's teacher by April 13, 2018.

| | | | | |
|--|--|---|---|---|
| Show your mom or dad your favourite website or YouTUBE channel. | Find 3 letters hidden in nature. | Use a recipe to cook or bake something. Make sure it's delicious! 😊 | Play tag. | Look up your favourite book using École Capitol Hill's online library catalogue. |
| Go on a neighbourhood walk. | Use a paper or an electronic map to find an alternative route to school. | Sing a song or rhyme together. Or, read a poem together. | Practice writing out the grocery list, then help your mom or dad do the shopping. | Play a math card game. |
| The Winter Olympics were in PyeongChang, South Korea. Use an atlas to locate the city. | Brainstorm how you could spread more kindness in our community. | Read before bed and get a full night of sleep. Ages 5 -13: 9-10 hrs Ages 14 - 17: 8 - 10 Adults: 7 - 9 | Read two pages in a book to mom or dad with great expression! | Tell a cultural story or one about your ancestors. |
| Practice saying and printing your address and phone number. | Read a story outside. | Write an e-mail or letter together. | Spend less than 2 hours one day on recreational screen time. | Explore a new park or trail with your family. |
| Go to the Burnaby Public Library and take out a book. | Help your mom or dad count out money to pay for something at a store. | Read a book together. | Think of three different words that start with 'M' and make up rhymes for them. | Complete an activity on https://hourofcode.com/ca/learn |

Parent's Signature: _____ Child's Name: _____ Div: _____