PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

- Staffing update – all of our EAs' contracts end on June 30 2022 so three of our regular EAs will be leaving us as a result. In addition to Mr. Kanno, Mrs. Graafen, and Ms. Maloney retiring, we also have Mr. Kashima, Ms. Philips, Mr. Chu, Mme. Berg and Mrs. Bovell leaving us after this school year. We will also be looking for a new part-time Librarian as Mrs. Doerksen has decided to reduce her hours.
- Ms. Lui has been working hard on recording and editing the Moana musical and we will have two showings via Zoom coming up soon.
- Grade 7 leaving ceremony will be on Friday June 24 – there are virtual and in-person options for the families. Grouse mountain trip will be on Monday, June 27 and with all the funding we've raised this event will be free of charge for our students. Cineplex ticket sale raised $606.00, Pie Hole raised $1251.00, bake sales have made over $1,000 so far and we have two more bake sales to go.

HEAD TEACHER'S REPORT

- The bake sale has created quite a buzz at school as we haven't been able to have one in a long time!
- The Young Actor project and tennis are happening simultaneously right now and the students have been enjoying both.
- Thank you Lina for organizing and sorting the emergency bags – most have now been retrieved by the teachers.
- The teachers have started talking about next school year, September 19 to the 23 is when intake meetings will take place and we will have early dismissal on September 22.

CHAIR'S REPORT

- Vote: Musical script books for Ms. Lui's music class, $150 USD (approx. $220 USD) plus shipping to come out of the gaming grant. Motion carried.
- Teachers Luncheon will be taking place this Friday. Thank you Lilia and Renee for making this happen.

TREASURER'S REPORT:

- We have a healthy $13,165.51 total funds at the moment.

Have a great summer!
